The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic

How engaging 1% of Catholics could change the world

Matthew Kelly

As human beings, we are constantly engaging and disengaging in everything we do. We engage and disengage at work, in marriage, as parents, in our quest for health and well-being, in personal finances, environmentally, politically, and, of course, we engage or disengage spiritually.

If you walk into any Catholic church next Sunday and look around, you will discover that some people are highly engaged, others are massively disengaged, and the majority are somewhere in between. Why? What is the difference between highly engaged Catholics and disengaged Catholics?

Answering this question is essential to the future of the Catholic Church. If we truly want to engage Catholics and reinvigorate parish life, we must first discover what drives engagement among Catholics. Matthew Kelly explores this question in this groundbreaking new talk, and the simplicity of what he discovers will amaze you.

"I highly recommend this, no matter where you are in your faith journey, and regardless of your religious affiliation. The four signs are something everyone should practice! Plan your faith journey, commit to your plan, live life more fully... Simple concepts that achieve greatness almost instantly."

Dana - Pensacola, FL

"Mathew pulls the four main characteristics of a dynamic Catholic together in a very simple way. This is something every member of pastoral councils around the world should hear." Patrick - North Bend, WA

"Extraordinary... This reminded me of how proud I should be to be Catholic. I'm going to try every day to be the best version of myself and to stand up for the Church!"

Ann - San Diego, CA

"Matthew has captured the formula of building the Church with holy people: Prayer, study, generosity, and evangelization."

Robert - Brentwood, CA
