~Jonathan, Phoenix AZ

"In the 1950s, Catholic homes often reverberated with the recognizable magnetic voice of our most beloved Venerable Fulton Sheen. Considered the first televangelist ever, he mesmerized the faithful with his incredible teachings on the faith. A man of great intellect, wisdom, humor and love, we are honored to soon be including him among the most venerated saints of all time. He was given the gift of amazing wisdom, and what he said spoke to my heart."

~Laura, Newtown PA

"This left me with a desire to find my neighbor, who is someone in need. My neighbor is part of myself."

~Bobbi, Makoti ND
