Real Womanhood

Lisa Cotter

In a talk that was given to a group of women at the FOCUS national conference, Lisa Cotter debunks the myths of modern day stereotypical womanhood. Using insights from the late Pope John Paul the second and the heroic example of modern-day saints, Lisa gets to the truth about what it means to be an authentic woman.

“After listening to this talk, I am proud to be a woman and am inspired to learn more about great female saints!”
Sarah - Youngstown, NY

“All my daughters will be getting this one... Lisa's best yet!” Nancy - Union City, TN

“An absolute must listen for all young women who desire to live godly Christian lives.”
Darrell - Barboursville, WV

“An inspiring talk for both single and married women. Cotter gives real life examples of how women can use their God-given gifts for his glory.”
Julia - Mastic Beach, NY

“It takes a woman to understand women. This talk is just awesome!” Norm - Biloxi, MS

“Lisa gives womanhood true meaning! Every Catholic woman should listen to this.” Mickey - Philadelphia, PA

“This CD made me want to celebrate being a woman! Lisa's humor and candor sets the stage for an honest look at the lies that our culture speaks to every generation and reminds us that our identity is found in God's design and desire for us—to be helpers to mankind, to offer the feminine genius to our own generation... not someday in the future, but today.” Mary - Poplar Grove, IL

“With faith, facts and history, this talk can inspire many women to better understand what womanhood is really about.” Donna - Woodland Hills, CA

“Wow. Every female needs to hear this message frequently!” Nancy - Warroad, MN
