CATHOLICISM

THE NEW EVANGELIZATION

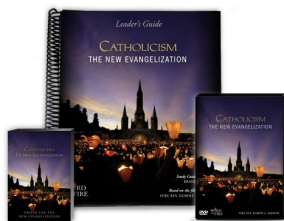

The much-anticipated follow-up to Fr. Barron's powerful DVD series of 2011

Catholicism taught us what the Church believes and why. Now Catholicism: The New Evangelization shows us how to put our Faith into action in today's increasingly secular world. You'll follow Fr. Barron to Australia, England, and around the U.S. to examine the Church's mission within the challenges of Western secular culture. This 90-minute film first tells us what the "New Evangelization" is, and then takes us on a fascinating tour to witness examples of new ardor, new expressions, and new methods of evangelization in action.

In classic documentary style, Fr. Barron is joined by a large group of Catholics, both well-known and ordinary. He also showcases numerous examples of individuals and groups proclaiming the Gospel with creativity and innovation. Whether it's in the United States, England or Australia, we see the Church alive with a renewed spirit, talking about the Lord with new expressions, and reaching out globally with new communication tools.

STUDY PROGRAM LESSONS

1. Introduction

Fr. Barron explains how "The New Evangelization" is the responsibility of each individual Catholic who has been baptized into a missionary vocation.

2. New Ardor

Fr. Barron takes us behind the scenes at World Youth Day and shows us energetic examples of new ardor.

3-4. New Expressions

Fr. Barron explains why secularism is on the rise: Confusion about who God is; trying to fill human longing for God with things of this world; and relativism that purports that there is no objective truth.

5. New Methods

In today's culture the internet and social media play a huge role. Fr. Barron encourages us all to use these new methods for the Lord.

6. Faith in Action

This workshop-style session guides participants in developing their own new evangelization action plan.
