Jason Evert explains, in simple to understand terms, that the Catholic Church IS Christ's Church because Jesus created it. Furthermore, if we truly want to uncover the real meaning of Christ's revelations to us, we need to accept BOTH Scripture AND Sacred Traditions. Mr. Evert uses his own life experiences as an analogy, and in a way that all of us can relate too. I look forward to more of his CDs!

This is a very powerful story of the development of one man's faith journey through horrible circumstances and eventual release to freedom. It inspires and encourages. Powerful witness to the power of God in the midst of horrible circumstances which none of us ever hope to find ourselves. God is always greater than anything else. This man's story is powerful to convey that. I have given these CDs away and then want to listen again but find I gave away my last one again. So I am buying more. Excellent CD!
