THE DIARY OF ST. FAUSTINA

Shortly before the outbreak of World War II, a simple, uneducated, young Polish nun received a special call. Jesus told her, "I am sending you with my mercy to the people of the whole world. I do not want to punish mankind, but I desire to heal it, pressing it to my merciful Heart." He also told her to record His message of mercy in a diary: "You are the secretary of my mercy. I have chosen you for that office in this and the next life."

This diary chronicles St. Faustina's great experience of Divine Mercy in her soul and her mission to share that mercy with the world. Though she died in obscurity in 1938, she was hailed by St. John Paul II as "the great apostle of Divine Mercy in our time".

In this diary, St. Faustina's childlike trust, simplicity, and intimacy with Jesus will stir your heart and soul. Her spiritual insights will surprise and reward you. "Only love has meaning," she writes. "It raises up our smallest actions into infinity."

"Through the work of this humble daughter from Poland, this message has become linked for ever to the twentieth century, the last of the second millennium and the bridge to the third. It is not a new message but can be considered a gift of special enlightenment that helps us to relive the Gospel more intensely—to offer it as a ray of light to the men and women of our time."
