What price would you pay for religious freedom?

An epic new film, For Greater Glory, premiered in theaters across the country on Friday, June 1. For Greater Glory tells the true story of Mexico's battle for religious liberty and the Catholic Faith that rocked North America in the 1920s.

In For Greater Glory, Academy Award® nominee Andy Garcia leads an acclaimed international cast that brings to life the true story of Mexico's Cristero War—a fight for religious liberty in which brave men and women resisted the Mexican government's attempts in the 1920s to destroy the Catholic Church. This powerful film tells how thousands paid the ultimate price for freedom and their Catholic Faith—including martyrs who were canonized and by Blessed Pope John Paul II in 2000, and others who were beatified in 2005 by Pope Benedict XVI.

For Greater Glory is endorsed by bishops and Catholic leaders around the country. Carl Anderson, the Knights of Columbus' Supreme Knight, said, "For Greater Glory is 'must-see' viewing for all those who care about faith and liberty today."

Don't miss For Greater Glory! You can book tickets now by visiting www.ForGreaterGlory.com and clicking "Find A Theater." If there is high attendance during the first weeks, the movie will show in more theatres across the country, and ultimately this important and relevant message will reach many more Catholics. Please note that this film is rated R for scenes of wartime violence and martyrdom.
